We provide price information to businesses in relation to applying for a new premises licence or to vary a premises licence, to allow those premises to be used for one or more licensable activities. Examples including applications for a premises licence under Section 17 of the Licensing Act 2003, and applications to vary a premises licence under Section 34 of the Licensing Act 2003.

Simple application: £750.00 - £950.00 plus VAT

Medium complexity: £1,250.00 - £1,450.00 plus VAT

High complexity: £1,750.00 - £1,950.00 plus VAT

To help determine whether your application for a premises licence is likely to be simple, medium or high complexity, a number of factors affecting complexity may apply. These may include whether there is a cumulative impact policy in place, the type and size of the premises, or whether it is in a residential area. For example, high complexity could include large-scale public events.

How long will my application take?

Matters usually take 2-6 months from receipt of full instructions from you, depending on a number of external factors including the timescales set by the local authority. The shorter timescale is on the basis of the application being relatively straightforward and you being able to provide all of the necessary documents promptly. If your matter is more complex, for example, if there is a substantial opposition from interested parties, or if there is a delay in receiving the documents we need.
